Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies
Volume 3, Number 2 (July 2000)

EDITORIAL

About This Issue 163-165

ARTICLES

Amos Yong
On Divine Presence and Divine Agency: Toward a Foundational pneumatology 167-188

Vinson Synan
A Healer in the House?: A Historical Perspective on Healing in the Pentecostal/Charismatic Tradition 189-201

Makito Nagasawa
Makuya Pentecostalism: A Survey 203-218

Michael Wilkinson
Globalization of Pentecostalism: The Role of Asian Immigrant Pentecostals in Canada 219-226

"PENTECOSTAL EDUCATION"

Benjamin Sun
Assemblies of God Theological Education in Asia Pacific: A Reflection 227-251

Everret L. McKinney
Spiritual Aspects of Pentecostal Education: A Personal Journey 253-279

Miguel Alvarez
Distinctives of Pentecostal Education 281-293
David D. Daniels, III
"Live So Can Use Me Anytime, Lord, Anywhere": Theological Education in the Church of God in Christ, 1970 to 1997 295-310

Edgar R. Lee
What the Academy Needs from the Church? 311-318

Richard L. Dresselhaus
What Can the Academy Do for the Church? 319-323

BOOK REVIEWS

Melvin Ho: Review of Speaking in Tongues 325-326

Amos Yong: Review of Journeys at the Margin: Toward an Autobiographical Theology in American-Asian Perspective 327-331

Melvin Ho: Review of Pentecostal Perspectives 331-334

CONTRIBUTORS 337-338